Dear Beate:

As a window manufacturer, I have had the opportunity to be part of many architectural projects that have exposed me to a wide range of products. Having worked with you on several projects now, I have always been very impressed with the products you supply, to the extent I have chose to work with The Door Studio to supply the bi-fold doors that for my own home have come to be the showpiece for project.

After extensive research into large scale bi-fold door systems, your company continually surfaced as a best bet, and having worked with you from design through to installation, we are very happy with our choice. Delivery was on-time, your price competitive and your help through the design process invaluable.

In closing, thank you for a job well done and please do not hesitate to use me as a referral.

Sincerely,

Christopher Meiorin
